Latin American Coalition Against Racism

In 1999, the Centre for Spanish Speaking Peoples and others formed LACAR in response to racist posters by Toronto Police that depicted Latin American youth as criminals.

Colour of Poverty Campaign

In 2007 SALCO, MCSALC, ACLC, together with agencies serving racialized communities formed an anti-poverty group to address the over-representation of racialized groups living in poverty. They made sure that the racialization of poverty could not be ignored by politicians and community groups.

Anti-KKK Rally

In the early 1980s, the Ku Klux Klan tried to operate out of a house in Parkdale, but PCLS joined community members and Parkdale Action Committee Against Racism to force them out.

Ending Carding

Since 2012, the ACLC and JFCY have spoken out against the Toronto Police practice of ‘carding’—collecting data on innocent civilians and unfairly targeting racialized groups, especially African Canadians. In 2015 the Provincial government said it will force an end to arbitrary carding.

Legal Clinics Organize!

Migrant Workers

Farmworkers need safe employment, healthcare and just compensation for injury. Industrial Accident Victims Group of Ontario, Niagara North, Legal Assistance of Windsor and other clinics support workers in this fight, alongside groups such as Justicia for Migrant Workers.

Head Tax Redress

Metro Toronto Chinese & Southeast Asian Legal Clinic MOCALS worked with other organizations to win an apology and redress from the Canadian government for the Chinese Head Tax (1885–1923) and the Chinese Exclusion Act (1882–1947).

Sanctuary Cities

Clinics in Hamilton and Toronto supported the push for municipal policies that ensured equal access to city services without fear for people without immigration status.

UN Expert on Minorities

The African Canadian Legal Clinic (ACLC) organized community meetings in 2009 so the UN Independent Expert on Minorities could hear from Toronto’s Black communities.

Angry Women Act for Justice

Women of different cultures unite against violence against women.

Head Tax Redress

Metro Toronto Chinese & Southeast Asian Legal Clinic MOCALS worked with other organizations to win an apology and redress from the Canadian government for the Chinese Head Tax (1885–1923) and the Chinese Exclusion Act (1882–1947).

Sanctuary Cities

Clinics in Hamilton and Toronto supported the push for municipal policies that ensured equal access to city services without fear for people without immigration status.

Ending Carding

Since 2012, the ACLC and JFCY have spoken out against the Toronto Police practice of ‘carding’—collecting data on innocent civilians and unfairly targeting racialized groups, especially African Canadians. In 2015 the Provincial government said it will force an end to arbitrary carding.

Anti-KKK Rally

In the early 1980s, the Ku Klux Klan tried to operate out of a house in Parkdale, but PCLS joined community members and Parkdale Action Committee Against Racism to force them out.

Migrant Justice

Since the early 1980s, the Inter Clinic Immigration Working Group and clinics like the South Asian Legal Clinic of Ontario (SALCO), Justice for Children and Youth (JFCY), Parkdale Community Legal Services (PCLS) & Neighbourhood Legal Services educate and push for just immigration policies.

Head Tax Redress

Metro Toronto Chinese & Southeast Asian Legal Clinic (MOCALS) worked with other organizations to win an apology and redress from the Canadian government for the Chinese Head Tax (1885–1923) and the Chinese Exclusion Act (1882–1947).

Sanctuary Cities

Clinics in Hamilton and Toronto supported the push for municipal policies that ensured equal access to city services without fear for people without immigration status.

Ending Carding

Since 2012, the ACLC and JFCY have spoken out against the Toronto Police practice of ‘carding’—collecting data on innocent civilians and unfairly targeting racialized groups, especially African Canadians. In 2015 the Provincial government said it will force an end to arbitrary carding.